

Football Training

Due to the winter nights drawing in there will be no further Football training until after the Christmas break. I will send out new interest letters in the New Year.

I would like to take the opportunity to thank the boys for their hard work and commitment and to wish you all a Merry Christmas.

Mr S. Gregory