

For this weeks handwriting practice we are going to be looking at phase 3 tricky words. Remember tricky words are the words that we can't sound out using our phonics, they are trying to catch us out so we need to practice them so that they stick in our brains!

Below are a list of tricky words for you to practice in your home learning books.

Remember we want to see your beautiful cursive handwriting sat smartly on the line.

we	me	all	are they	my	her	was
be	you	she	he

Challenge!!

Write silly sentences with as many of these tricky words in as you can.
