

Handwriting

Today's handwriting task is writing CVC captions. These are very simple, so we are going to give you a challenge! We have given you two options on how to form your letters today - pre-cursive (where each letter is separate, but has joiners at the start and finish) and cursive (where you don't take your pencil off the page until the end of the word). See if you can challenge yourself to try the cursive version!

And don't forget to post your work on Seesaw!
