

History!

What is Leicester famous for?

Your task this week is to become a historical researcher-
Can you uncover what Leicester is famous for?

What is research?

An investigation or study of sources to find the facts.

What sources could you use to find out about the history of Leicester?- Historical documents, papers or journals, books, articles and the internet

If the museums were open they are all full of local history- Newark houses is particularly amazing at telling you all about the history of Leicester- maybe you can plan a visit there once it has re-opened to check your facts match theirs.

You can display your findings however you want.

Leicester is an amazing city full of rich history, famous historical events and people were from Leicester, there is history from every era of time to find out about and much more recent history that has made Leicester very famous- We can't wait to see what you discover about the fantastic city we live in.

