

English - Day Three

This week in English, our focus is going to be on writing your own character description of someone in your family.

Yesterday, you thought of lots of amazing adjectives. Today, your task is to write your own character description describing somebody in your family.

When writing your character description we want you to think about:

- What they look like
- Their personality (are they kind? Loving?)

We want you to use as many ambitious adjectives as you can!

When you have finished, email it to us on:

Arhyearl@aldermanrichardhallam.leicester.sch.uk

Did I...

describe what the character looks like?

describe how the character acts, speaks and moves?

describe what the character thinks and feels?

use interesting adjectives?
