

Antartctic animals, birds and sea creatures research

To combine topic and English this week, we'd like you to research a living creature who can be found on or around the continent of Antarctica.

Think about their scientific name, habitat, breeding, food, lifestyle. You could add a picture of your creature and/or a map of Antarctica and show where they live.