

Geography Quiz

Here's another tricky one for you. Can you name all of the famous landmarks below? If you want a challenge, could you be more specific about where these landmarks are in the world?

Which one would you most like to visit? I wonder if you have visited any of them already!

Problem

If it was midday in London, what time would it be at each of these landmarks?

(Tip: You will have to do some research about time zones.)
