Wednesday 11th November 2026

Dear Parents and Carers,

To kick start Anti-Bullying Week, we will be taking part in Odd Socks Day on Monday 16th November 2026. To celebrate that we are all unique, we ask that children wear odd socks to school on Monday. Andy Day (CBeebies/CBBC) and his band Andy and the Odd Socks are partnering with the Anti-Bullying Alliance to help bring Odd Socks Day to life again this year. Have a listen to the brilliant song they have recorded especially for Anti- Bullying Week, 'Who's Wearing Odd Socks?!'.

Odd Socks Day is important because it sends an important message that we should all be allowed to be ourselves, free from bullying and helps us celebrate Anti-Bullying Week in a fun and positive way.

All you need to do is send your children to school in their school uniform but also wearing odd socks - the wackier the better! And, if you are able to, donate £1 to the Anti-Bullying Alliance by clicking here.

You can find out more about how we prevent bullying in our school on the website. It would be wonderful if you could take some time this week to discuss bullying with your child and how they can be an upstander – there's a handy video on the school website you can share and discuss with your child.

We thank you for your continued support on this important matter and look forward to seeing all the children flashing their odd socks on Monday 16th November!

Yours sincerely,

Mrs Lawes
